

WebFont License

WebFont – End User License Agreement

This WebFont – End User License Agreement 'EULA' is a legally binding contract between 'You' – The Customer and Ten Dollar Fonts Ltd – 'Ten Dollar Fonts.' By purchasing a License and downloading WebFont software from Ten Dollar Fonts, You agree that You have fully read, understood and agreed to the terms and conditions of this EULA. If You do not agree to the terms and conditions of this EULA, You are not authorized to purchase a WebFont License or download and use any WebFont software from Ten Dollar Fonts. You are purchasing a License for usage only, not ownership of the software.

Our Licenses

Ten Dollar Fonts trust You respect us and our practice of typographic design. Ten Dollar Fonts believe You will respect our vision of empowering the whole industry with affordable typography and will order the correct License. Regardless, Ten Dollar Fonts manually inspect all orders received on a daily basis. If we believe You have purchased the incorrect License we reserve the right to contact You to confirm the correct use of the WebFont software.

Grant of License/Number of Websites/Views

By purchasing a WebFont License You are granted permission to use the supplied WebFont software according to the terms and conditions of this EULA. The WebFont License permits the use of the licensed software on one website (URL) only. You are not permitted to add the WebFont software to multiple website domains. For each single licensed WebFont You may only use the WebFont software on one single website (URL) that is owned and controlled exclusively by You.

WebFont software is licensed and priced according to annual page views. Each WebFont License permits the use of WebFont software on a website with a maximum of 250,000 views per year. If You require a WebFont License to allow more views, please order accordingly. 1 WebFont License = 250,000 views per year. If You require the use of the same WebFont across multiple websites, place a different order for each website. Payment is a one-time fee unless the website grows and You require your License to support a larger number of views.

Format and Software

WebFont software is supplied in the following formats: EOT, TTF WebOnly and WOFF. You are responsible for hosting the software and correctly referring to them with code that You create/manage. Ten Dollar Fonts cannot support technical or design issues when You are using WebFont software.
